The team captain is also expected to take charge during an incident or capsized on the water. The team captain, drummer, or steersperson should conduct a head count, make sure everyone stays together / re-check everyone until the rescue boat picks everyone up.

All teams must report to marshaling area 45 minutes before the race.

VIII. FALSE START:

If a team false starts, all boats will be called back to restart or if the race is allowed to continue, a minimum of 20 second penalty will be added to the false starting team's time at the completion of the race. 3. The official race course is approximately 500 meters in length. The finish line will be marked by buoys. Teams are assigned to a particular lane and boats are marked accordingly.
4. If, in the opinion of the referee, a boat is deliberately swamped or capsized, the race committee may disqualify the team from any official standing and may refuse the team's further participation in the races.
5. If, in the opinion of the Race Committee, a boat and its equipment is deliberately damaged by team members, the Race Committee may impose a financial and /or disciplinary penalty. This rule applies throughout the practice season and the race weekend.
6. At the conclusion of each race, the Finish Line Judge will signal a fair race by waving a white flag. A red flag results for each boat that properly crosses the finish line.
7. Upon completion of their race, teams remain in their boats (please don't stand up in the boat) and paddle directly to the dock, without delay. All boats will be used in the next race; participants should not linger at the finish line.
8. Dock at the proper spot on the dock according to lane number. Disembark in an orderly manner. Leave the paddles, and life jackets at the designated area. And, leave any anti-skid material and drumsticks on board, or passing them to the next racers if they are waiting.
